

Road to Village Savirolli

In Maharashtra, the mentors visited Palghar, Thane and trained 20 mentees, on 17th November, 2019. The objective of the visit was to understand and acquaint themselves with the social realities of Mentees, meet their parents to understand their viewpoint and most importantly to impart skills. This helped them understand, how the visual narratives support in analysing the ground realities and why it is important to make the people aware about the same.

The workshop focused on teaching the mentees, responsible usage of smartphones followed by a hands-on training for it. As a gesture to build further bonds between mentors and mentees, a set of about 25 tree saplings were purchased from the local Forest Department by the Mentors.

Handmade Products: Waste to Art

In Jharkhand, Mentor Ms. Kamna Hazrati motivated the girls and advised them to share their handmade products using the waste available in the village, also she explained the steps to prepare a flowerpot and the mentees created a pot and presented as a gift to the representative of Ministry of Tribal affairs at the event at Facebook office in Delhi. Then she motivated the mentees to recognize their skills and asked them to prepare some artistic stuff based on the available resources at their village.

Mentoring Session

Pre-Prepared Extempore

In Madhya Pradesh, Dr. Snigdha motivated girls to prepare a speech on their favourite topic from their respective syllabus and were asked to present the same over a video call.

Unlocking Livelihood Options

Mentor Seema, in Odisha, explained the concept MSME and how it works; explaining its concept of how it helps small businessmen to grow their ventures. She had also shared the number MSME present in the state and educate them on the ways to explore the same and asked them the task to explore the MSME ventures in their Nuapatna. The Mentees were happy and assured that they will visit the block office and met with the people and explore ways to identify the MSME units in their block.

Social Media Lectures 1.0

In West Bengal, mentor Sneha Banerjee worked on mentees and trained them on how to put impactful visual narratives on their Facebook page, the do's and don'ts of social media applications, online safety and security. She shared some practical examples with the mentees on doing safe browsing and the importance of keeping strong passwords and precautions that are needed when connecting with the public WIFI and so on.

Let's Not Stress, Pre-exam counsel at its best

Swastika Jajoo, a mentor in Maharashtra advised her mentees on how to stay stress-free during exams and listed the importance of diagrams on answer sheets. She believes an answer with a diagram or graphical representation will help students score better marks. Also, she counselled mentees individually, with an objective to handle the exam phobia.

“

Creating Communities to Bridge the Gap

”

Story Sessions on Video Calls

Mentor Pankaja took a class after a long gap because she was travelling Internationally. The Mentees were very excited to talk to her after so long & wanted to know all about her trip. Pankaja enthusiastically shared travel stories from her recent trip to South Africa. She shared her experiences of the cultural shock, the different languages, ways of living, etc.

“

Creating Communities to Bridge the Gap

”

for more information

visit www.de ndia.org/goal